

Unchanging God, Who Livest

(Belfry Praise)

Laura E. Goodin (2020) adaptation of original words by Henry Charles Wilder (1904)

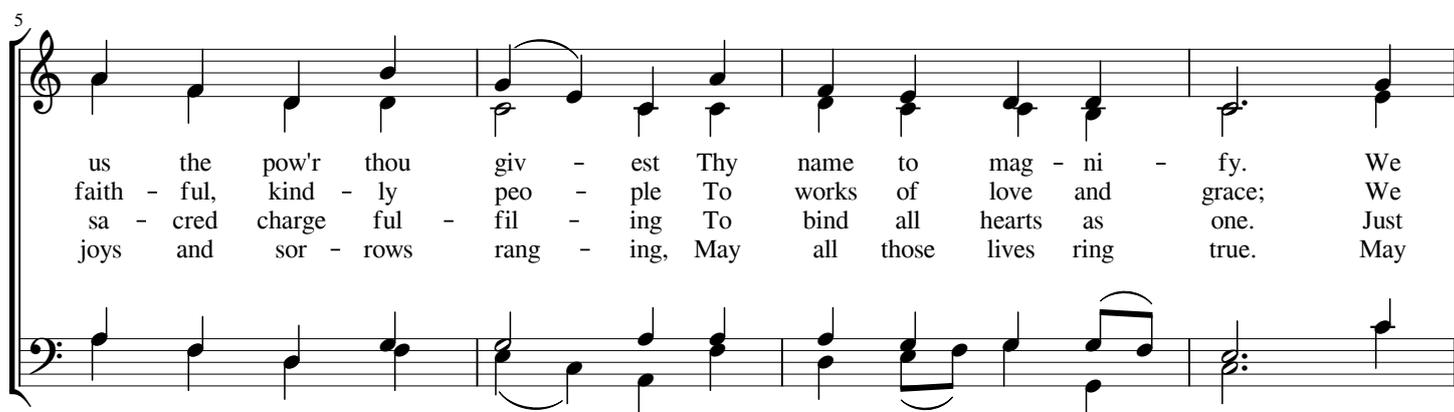

John H. Matthews

S
A

1. Un - chang - ing God, who li - vest En - throned in realms on high, To
2. We call, from tow'r and stee - ple, From ever - y ring - ing place, All
3. By un - ion free and wil - ling The work of God is done; Our
4. Our lives, like bells, while chang - ing, An or - dered course pur - sue; Through us the pow'r thou giv - est Thy name to mag - ni - fy. We faith - ful, kind - ly peo - ple To works of love and grace; We sa - cred charge ful - fil - ing To bind all hearts as one. Just joys and sor - rows rang - ing, May all those lives ring true. May raise the bells for ring - ing With read - y mind and will, And ring with joy - ous glad - ness When two who join are blessed; We as the bells have drawn us, We now ex - tend a hand, Be - we, with grace and kind - ness, For - give all fail - ures past, And come be - fore thee bring - ing Our hearts, our strength, our skill.

5

9

13

peal in muf - fled sad - ness For loved ones laid to rest.
frien - ding all who join us, A strong and stead - fast band.
make our way to heav - en, Called home to rest at last.